

Dr. Henry Milla Cube died of natural causes on May 15, 2020 at the age of 98 surrounded by his family in Buena Park, California.

He is survived by his wife, Dr. Aurora Purification Villanueva Cube, his children, Ian, Rowena, Jocelyn, grandchildren Jasmine, Joshua and his brother, Dr. Ernesto M. Cube. He is predeceased by his father, Rogelio Cube, his mother, Encarnacion Milla, his brothers Cesar, Carlos, Bienvenido, his sisters Josefina, Soledad and Luisa.

Dr. Cube was born on August 12, 1921 in Tarlac, Philippines. In 1950, he obtained his medical degree from the University of Santo Thomas, Manila, Philippines. The next year the university granted Dr. Cube a scholarship to be a practicing fellow in the Madrid Institute of Neurosurgery in Madrid, Spain. Two years later in 1953, at the recommendation of Dr. Obrador Alcade, Dr. Cube started his neurosurgical residency under the direction of Harvard University at Boston City Hospital in Boston, Massachusetts. He passed his diplomate boards in 1956 which according to Dr. Cube was "the happiest day of my life." To further his education, he trained at Yale University's neuropathology department for a year then returned home to the Philippines. During the next fifteen years, he established a successful medical practice along with becoming an associate professor of neurosurgery at the University of Santo Thomas.

In 1959, he married Dr. Aurora Ruste Villanueva. In June 1971, sponsored by a group of neurosurgeons at Bridgeport, Connecticut, he, his wife and their three children immigrated to the the United States of America. During the next three years, he practiced neurosurgery in Connecticut and Johnstown, Pennsylvania before finally landing in Somerset County. He retired in 1987. Along with his now retired wife, he moved to Buena Park, California in 2013.

Dr. Cube was a devoted father, an avid gardener, a loyal Steeler fan, tennis player and fisherman. He enjoyed discussing politics, extensively traveling around the world and reading the Wall Street Journal every day. He will be deeply missed by his friends, his family and all who knew him.

His burial service was held at Westminster Memorial Park in Westminster, California on May 26, 2020. Father Paw of Saint Pius V Catholic Church officiated the ceremony.
